

Amos Moore

October 14, 2012

Amos Moore was born July 21, 1930 in North Carolina. Our dad came to New Jersey in the late 1940's. He worked in construction and for local farmers. He met our mother, Cheryl Ann Cosby in 1970 and they were married and started a family. Our mom passed away in June of 1996 and Pops went into pop-pop mode.

Over the years, Amos enjoyed being with his grandchildren, going fishing, especially in the Poconos. He like watching westerns (John Wayne) on television. He also liked to let his son Amos, Jr. have it for not shaving him properly. He enjoyed spending time with James. He made a few trips back home to North Carolina to visit with his sisters as well.

Pops spent his last years living in Philadelphia with eldest daughter and her family. He enjoyed hanging out in his room watching Martin and Madea. And of course listening to find out what was going on (lol).

Our dad was a hardworking man, set in his ways, which meant he was never wrong (lol), but would always help his children. He may not have wanted to do it and God knows he was going to talk about it, but he never let us down.

Amos is survived by his children: the late James Thomas, Darnell Cosby, Shelly Melchior (David), Darlene Moore, Sherry Moore, Amos Moore, Jr. (Chowon), Patty Moore, James Moore and the late Jerry Lee Moore (Lynielle). He is also survived by his grandchildren Marcus (Markie), Byshera (BeBe), Elana (Mulana), Myles, Mya, Malik, Elijah, Maxwell, Jaylin, Layla, Cheryl Ann, Rebecca, Jamie, Destiny and Makayla; his brothers and sisters- Wilbert Moore, Stanley Moore, Esthel Moore, Francis Lee Moore, Daisy Lee Moore, Rosa Lee Moore, and the following deceased siblings-Alan Moore, George Moore, Clayton Moore, Roosevelt Moore, Cleveland Moore, Hattie Lee Moore, and Maggie Lee Moore. Amos is also survived by a host of cousins, nephews, nieces, and friends.
