

Andre Maliek Moore

June 21, 2016

Andre Maliek Moore, the youngest of three children was born October 19, 1988, at Jefferson Hospital in Philadelphia, PA. to the proud parents of Marcus Carl Moore, Sr. and Darlene Dickson.

'Dre', as he was affectionately called, received his formal education in the Philadelphia Public School System, graduating from the Delaware Valley High School in 2006 with honors as Valedictorian.

Andre was a lover of basketball, which he loved watching with his brothers, Mark & Bobby. He also enjoyed music and dancing. Spending time with his only son was the highlight of his life.

There are loved ones whom Andre cherished that preceded him in death, namely, his beloved grandmother Ruth Ann Golden, father, Marcus Carl Moore, Sr., Uncle Ardell Golden, Aunt Pauline Ann Lipford, cousin Carolyn Golden, and last but not least Uncle James Lipford, and Uncle Leon Golden.

Andre will live on in the hearts of those he loved and those who loved him; his mother Darlene Evangelista; son Tymir John Moore; siblings Robert Jennings, and Marcus Carl Moore, Jr.; grandmother Ruth R. Taylor, grandmother Delores Moore; grandfather Tyrone Moore; uncles Robert, Larry, Jerome, Frank, Bernard, Arron, Grant, Calvin, and Fred; aunts Shirlene, Sharea, Kathy; great aunt Lillian, Emily; and aunt Re-Easter Wallace.

Andre was always so proud of his little nieces and nephews Little Rob, Little Sy'air, as well as Samirah, Markyla, Marcus and Ayden. Andre has a host of beloved cousins and extended family & friends. He was close to his cousins Shannon, Kristian, Megan, Christina, Greg, Arron, Andrea, and Lissy, as well as his not to be forgotten good friends, Keith, Jazzy and Lexy.

Andre was loved and he gave love to his extended uncles and aunts - Stephanie and Donald, Diane, Tina, Necy, Sherri, Nadine, Shannon, Cece, and Lucy.

Andre will be sadly missed by all who knew him. May his tragedy bring about a new love for his memory and for peace in our society, where each soul seeks love for all.

Just thinking this time on Tuesday my baby boy was okay until I got the call before 12 pm. Everyday is a horrible day for me. My heart is still in denial my mind is frozen to fact that he isn't here. I wished I could've said something held him been there but I wasn't. Pain in my heart always. Just remember all the things Andre said his laughter but it still hurts nevertheless. I miss my baby boy and my Newpew.

Just thinking about this month. Andre loved summer and not so hot days. His dad use to tell him to stay out that son boy. Andre would get so dark during the summer but he didn't care. He was always an outside person know matter what the weather was. Even going to school if he got sick I couldn't get him to stay home. He and Mark practically ran Delaware Valley High. The teachers and the staff loved them. Could almost get away with anything. They both graduated velevictorian which surprise me. When I think they were not doing good in school they were. They made me proud to be there mother know matter what. We had some Rocky times but always manage to get through whatever Satan threw our way because of Jehovah. That my biggest mistake isn't keeping them in the true worship of Jehovah I know the outcome of their life would've been different . We use to write to each other everyday for 7 years while the system took him from me setting example because he had a gun showing Kristian. Then those twins set him up by stealing there sister's gun and the 24&25 district putting bullets in his pockets all along he's trying to tell them it wasn't his gun. But this is a long story and the police are always right but people often forget that they're human and imperfect and they're liars thieves,rapist and murderers to. But every bad deed doesn't go unnoticed or unpunished. I miss my son's laughter his funny jokes and his beautiful smile. His serious look when there is something on his mind down to his walk. His patience for a lot of things. Andre had a big heart when it can to his family particularly his mom and son and his brothers. Friends to him were like family. Missing my baby boy and my Newpnew Kristian he to had a beautiful smile and a laid back attitude very responsible,respectful and generous with his big eyes and big smile and his silly laughter. This is my mom's birthday we don't celebrate but will acknowledge. Its getting closer to the remembrance of my baby boy Andre that he was taken away from me his brothers and his only son who is having a hard time adjusting without his dad. We are all having a hard time believing that Andre isn't here. Its a pain that is ongoing it never stops and neither does the tears the fear and the heartache that burns through my very soul. The things I think about these people that plan and plotted and took my baby away from me is terrible but I ask Jehovah to forgive me and I only can rely on him and my family. Jehovah said he will wake Andre when the resurrection is due. I praying that I am there that we're all there to see him the ones that want to know Jehovah. Missing my baby boy Andre

Its getting closer to a year that my baby boy Andre was taking from me. Anxiety written all over my face and my heart is sick. Still can't comprehend what has happened to my baby boy. I just know I miss him terribly and his brothers and son are not dealing with this as well. I don't what I am supposed to do especially when the killer hasn't been caught and know one seems to care about catching this demonic animal behind the mask. But I will continue to pray for Andre's justice to come. Missing my baby boy. UTR

I am still up as usual can't sleep just thinking about my baby boy and wishing I could just die. Life is to much for me now I can't be here don't want to me here. I can't believe still that baby boy isn't here with me. He knew I loved him very much and I am I got to say that to him everyday. I always ask if he was o.k. he would say mom I cool. I just wished I could've save him from those monsters but I fail him as his mother and protector. He knew he could always count on me but this time I wasn't there. Thats6the guilt I carry around in my heart that is hurt and broken. My children are suffering and so is his son.

I know you don't know of me but I went high school with Dre. I'm just finding out about his death and I can't believe it. You most certainly didn't lie when you say he had your back no matter what. I had a problem with some guys long time ago. Kid claimed I "snitched" on me when in all actuality he told on me (nobody knows the true story but me). Long story short seen them at Frankfort Terminal and Dre was around. They stayed on a rant how I "snitched" on their man. They threatened to do something to me and Dre never even hesitated to say "not while I'm here". I didn't even ask him to help me and even in a sensitive situation like that he still had my back. Seen him in school the next day and said himself that "those guys were lying because they were hyping it up too much". Genuine dude and I dare anyone to deny that. You may have lost your son but God gained an angel and whatever God has you'll always have. Sorry for your loss. If I had a facebook I'd like everyone of your post.

Just thinking about my Andre and his school days. Andre could be sick and still wanted to go to school I would tell him stay I don't want to have to come out to Delaware valley high to pick you up his famous words were mom I am cool. Then he's in school couple hours later mom can you come get me . Andre and mark didn't miss days out of school. They were good kids busy body students but the teachers like them most of them anyway. Andre had a magnetic charm about him like his father and his uncle's. It's all in the smile and that cute kind of look they give that draws you to them and he was a handson little boy with hair down his back looking like a little girl. Grew up to be a handsome man with a beautiful son and the mother is a cutie to. I wished things could've work out with him and Andrea. Missing my baby boy*

But I keep praying for the day to come when all wickedness will be gone and Jehovah will wake him up in the resurrection. That's the only hope I have now and praying that I am there to see that joyous occasion. Missing my baby boy

One of my happy memories is when Andre got over the coli and was pretty bad for him and me poor baby. I would take Bobby to school poor Lil Mark would be eating his breakfast I would listen I didn't hear any crying that mean Andre had fell asleep I would snatch Lil Mark from the table and run upstairs to get some sleep I moved to slow he was up crying. When the doctor said they couldn't fix the coli I thought I would die from the crying from me and Andre I think I cried more for me then him he was a misable little baby. But he turned six months happiest day of all of our lives. He was a normal happy playful baby. The cutest smile ever. Andre drew people to him he was always friendly and helpful. I miss his caring attitude and his giving heart anything he could do to help he would. And he as a friend and a protector and a loving father. Missing my baby boy

Friday December 16,I was going through my music and deleting some of my files and I came across a file that had Andre name on it I lost to it it kind of threw B me for a minute it was my voice having a conversation with Andre. I miss him and his voice his laughter and his smile. Andre is all I think about I still having a hard time believing that my son is no longer with me. This is such a hard pill to swallow which I haven't begun to do yet. I can't get past him not being here. My heart to my very soul hurts. And there is anything I can do about it but suffer and remember my baby boy. I pray to Jehovah that I am there when he wakes him up. But there is a lot I need to hurry up and focus on to get me moving towards that goal that path that I want to led down by Jehovah's people. So please help me father to do just that if you see anything that is good or worthy in me I am praying for that.

I am writing again, Tuesday was a bad day. Remembering my baby boy. I was thinking when Andre was younger they wanted guinea pigs and Andre would sit down and watch TV with him basically he wanted to take him everywhere. I thought he would become a scientist one day the way he save the Lil poop. O he would get in trouble for that but we laugh it was pretty funny. Mark had a guinea pig to can't remember their names. Andre pig was black and Mark's was brown. Andre even shirts for them he was always making something from just about anything. He was very smart and most of the time a loner. I miss my baby boy so much. I wish I could talk to him and tell him that mom misses him terribly and that I am sorry I wasn't there that day. My baby boy Andre I live him so much.

“ I am writing again can't run out of words to express the way I feel about my son. It's August 7, 2016. I will never be able to get over the loss and pain I feel in my heart. My life is so empty right now without my son. I feel sick to the stomach. But I keep praying to Jehovah. I want to see my baby boy again. Missing my baby boy.

“ I am up again can't stop thinking my brain hurts. I just talk. Andre has been through so much in his life but he always had a smile on his face. I always prayed for my son's to be okay. He was a helper and a friend. He was always a loner growing up. But when you met him you love or loved him right from the first time you met him he made you feel comfortable with him even if you believe didn't know him. His laughter made you laugh his smile made you smile even harder. I miss my Andre.

“ It's Friday August 5,2016, I don't know I am just still in shock my heart aches for my son and it's nothing I can do to help find my son's murderer I believe feel helpless. If I could trade places with my son I would've done it before in a heartbeat no questions ask. I miss my baby boy. My heart hurts so bad I want to die. It keeps nagging at me to just end my life because I remember Andre didn't want to be here if I very wasn't here and that's the way I feel. I feel sick to the stomach Andre I know you can't hear me but I wish you could. But I know you're resting until I see you again. I don't know what to do I am truly lost without my son.

I don't want to go I can't because I k ow he would not be here without me. He told me that much. I don't even know if I will make it through the tribulation and if I don't I still won't see him. “ Everytime I pull his obituary I hurt so much it's so unbelievable the pain but is never ending. I wouldn't have believe I would see his picture on a site like this. I picture him graduating from design school that was his dreams. It's all shattered now. Miss my baby boy.

“ It's Sunday July31,2016. I was just thinking that he was the cutest baby with fat little cheeks. When my grandmother first saw him she thought he had two pink bows on the side of his face but they were his litter hands he would puy his little fist near his face upset that I took his bottle. He would let a cry. I remember when he got colic it was bad for him and bad for me that was his first rough time as a baby. But he got over that he was a happy baby after that ordeal and he was a happy go lucky person ever since. Always have a smile or something funny to tell you. Missing my baby boy

“ Well Andre my faith is being tested again by Satan. Your bother went through something this morning,July21,2016 this is a month that you have left us not on your free will. I know you can't hear me because you're sleeping until Jehovah wakes you but I am saddened and my heart hurts for you. Iam just expressing how I feel. Still can't believe my son is gone. This will be something I will never get over .My heart aches for you every day. And to see the pain on his son face is to much to bear. But I leave you in Jehovah's care and keeping. People don't understand but I know in my heart what I need to do to see you again. Because when you wake up by Jehovah's hand I need to be there to welcome you home. Missing my baby boy.

“ Andre you came home and you made it your business to find me and maurice. Ever since that day you were over our place everyday and night. My kids fell in love with you instantly. Their uncle dre. You took my daughter with you on the train and let her listen to the music on your phone and she loved it. The day me and Reese for married you came downtown with us and for 10 mintues we stood outside until you said let's go in and get this done. You made Maurice laugh as he said his vows and you played jagged edge let's get married afterwards. I'm sad that we didn't have a picture of any of it and I regret that now. When I met Maurice 12 years ago I also met you and you became my cousin also. I remeber sitting at mom neiecy house braiding your hair and you were so hype because it grew. Really going to miss you and that smile. RIP Dre!!!!

“ I remember when Andre was born,he was the cute fat little baby. He weighs 9pounds and a quarter. Short and fat. I remember when the photographer came to take him to get pictures taken he was drinking his bottle,little eyes were close they took that bottle from him and he let out a yell and his eyes open wide it was not good he scream for that bottle. They took him for pictures bought him back he was calm had that bottle in his mouth.He was peaceful with his bottle. That's my baby boy who I miss terribly I can't imagine living without him. I don't pray to live another day I am misable without him. I am sorry I couldn't save him from this hateful world.Missing my baby boy.

“ I remember when we first met at Shallcross. U wouldn't stop staring, and our mutual friend Keith hooked us up. We been best friends EVER since. You was very over protective of me, and u always made sure no danger came my way no matter where you was! We share the most handsome, smart son, whom looks more and more like you everyday! The way he walks, talk, and bit his nails down to nothing, reminds me of you all the time! It's hard for Tymir and I and being the mother of your child, my promise to you is to keep Tymir sane, guide him in the right direction and make sure the streets don't grab him! As ur mother say, I believe the jehovah will call you and wake you up, and I will be there for that! Me and Tymir! Ur ashes I will hold very close to us and ur memory will live on in Tymir! PIP just watch over us and make sure I'm doing he right thing by Tymir! Until next time 🥺🥺🥺

“ A letter

My baby boy,I have written you a million letters while you were away, and always gotten a return letter from with a cute saying or a "miss-u mom", how's my son&my brothers, uncles & aunts;tell them Hey take up a collection". Your letters,most of them,gave joy or tears.You were always telling me how sorry you were for not listening, but I always told you that things will be alright. Just keep your head up and you will be fine.

Now I'm writing you again, Baby Boy, but I won't get a response from you personally, but I feel you speaking to me in my heart & mind.

Every time you ended your letter to me ,you signed it your Baby Boy, and now I'm ending my letter signing off to you.

Love Mom
