“ I remember Andy with incredible fondness and as a truly gentle soul. Such a rarity. My heart goes out to all his family and friends.

“ The first time we met Andy was at Uncle Steven's services at Pebble Hill Church in Doylestown. As we entered, Andy walked toward the end of the hallway, dressed very nattily, and introduced himself to us. Such an engaging smile.

“ My brother Andy sent me a text every morning when he woke up wishing me a good day. A typical text was -"Top 'o the morning to you Elly Mae". Morning to Andy could be 8 AM or 8 PM. My good night text was "Namaste the other side of midnight. Good night" And there were plenty of texts, and voicemails in between. He never missed an opportunity to say "I love you". He made my days a little brighter.

He rarely ended a phone call without saying I love you. You were Elly Mae, which I love, and I was Janni.

“Andy touched many lives. He was a special person with a contagious smile, a unique style, and had a mind uninhibited by the restraints of our culture. He was a kind and gentle soul who ws known and loved by family, friends, neighbors, and just about everybody who crossed his path. You're with Getchen now - rest in peace my brother. We miss you.
