“ Tony you were more than a friend, sometimes You were a brother and other times like a son to me. You loved my Flan and I enjoyed making it for you. We shared so many good times together, that I will never forget, you always treated me as family. But that is not news to anyone who knew you. You were the same way with everyone. I wished I would have spent more time with you and the gang. So many great times shared with you. Your absence hurts so bad, but until I see you again. ❤️
