“ Thinking of all the great times we had growing up. All of our fun summers in Wildwood at Grandmoms house.. Dad went on ALL of the rides and ALL of the waterslides, he was fearless!! I remember all of the cheerleading practices he took me to, and even though he was bored out of his mind he was my #1 fan! Holidays were always the best with Dad because he loved to cook the holiday dinners and see people eat and enjoy themselves. Every Christmas when my brother and I would wake up, we were always SO excited because Dad got us the coolest gifts! He was like a big kid himself! He would play with all of our gifts and games with us all day! I swear he was just as excited as us on Christmas morning! Thanksgiving was too quiet this year. I am so used to hearing loud music playing and Dad having a good 'ol time on the holidays, but this year its just different. He was such an awesome Dad! I hope that one day I am half the parent he was! I remember the time i called him because I had a flat tire. He came to fix it for me and I thought I wouldn't have to worry because Dad would fix it... Boy was I wrong, he actually made me get on the ground and get dirty so he could teach me how to fix it myself! I couldn't believe it!! He said "Pumpkin, you have no business being out on the road if you cant change a tire!!" I was so mad at him but now I look back at those times and I think to myself how lucky I was to have him when I needed him. Even though I dont remember how to change a tire, I still have a general idea LOL... There will never be another like him. I cant believe that as of yesterday, he has been gone for 2 months. It doesn't seem real. I still do my best to make him proud because I know he is watching over me. I miss and love him so much..
