

Dorothy Sposato

August 29, 2013

Dorothy was born in Phila. PA. in 1930. She was brought up in a traditional Italian family. Her parents had eight other children besides Dorothy. This family life fostered her ability to cook and bake by the time she was nine, allowing her to contribute to the family in an important way. When not helping out at home, she attended Catholic School until she was 16. Leaving school, she helped the family financially by working as a cigar box examiner. By the time she was 20, she started working in Cordomatics which was a profession she enjoyed very much.

Dorothy met her late husband, Mario, through a mutual friend and married him shortly thereafter. Together they had eight healthy children: Lou, Anthony, Joseph, Michael, Teresa, Mario, Steven and Paul. From these children, she was gifted with 16 grandchildren, and great grandmother of 4. She is also sadly missed by her surviving siblings: Anna, Joanne, and Paul.

Dorothy's greatest love in life was her family. She recalls visiting her grandmother's house at a young age to help out in the home. Large family gatherings were commonplace throughout her life, especially during the holidays. Besides appreciating time with her family, Dorothy also enjoyed crocheting (rugs in particular), collecting dolls as a young girl, and art forms that were dramatic, like soap operas, the music of Frank Sinatra, and romance movies. Black Beauty was a personal favorite of hers.

Her Catholic faith motivated her to uphold her family traditions and guided her throughout life.

Tribute Wall

CS

“ Dorothy was not only my grandma she was my friend who went shopping for high  and outfits with me. She was the person I went to when I wanted the truth she was honest and blunt and didn't think twice about it. She is the person I think about everyday she gets me through everyday. She was not the grandmother you cried to she would tell you suck them tears up and keep going. She is and has always been my inspiration. She was a great wife, mother, grandmother, aunt and friend. Love you give grandpop a kiss for me see you both up there one day. Miss u so much and ur comments about some people love you forever

Christina Spo - June 16, 2016 at 10:29 PM

CS

“ Dorothy was not only my grandma, but she was my friend to go shopping with especially for high  she loved a great shoe. She was the person I went to when I wanted the truth. She was blunt and didn't think twice about what she said. She was the strongest woman I have ever known. She wasn't the grandmother you cried to. She told you suck them tears up and keep going, but she was always there to help you. I think about her everyday the thought of her strength gets me through everyday. I wish she was here physically with us but she is walking every step of my journey with me giving me that extra push I need sometimes well alot. lol love you grandma Spo miss you more than words can express. You were a great wife, mother, grandmother, aunt and friend. And an honest high  and outfit picker she always made sure I looked great! Miss you give grandpop a kiss n hug for me. See you up there  you both

Christina Spo - June 16, 2016 at 10:17 PM

“ *She was a good mother always knowing what to do in any situation. And giving love equally to each sibling always keeping us grounded she was a great lady and will always be missed by many people i know she is with her friends. And family and i and the family will join her someday
Thanks for everything*

Mike Sposato - September 04, 2013 at 03:13 PM

CS

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Carol Sposato - September 01, 2013 at 02:33 PM

DK

“ *Steve, sorry your mother passed away, our prayers are with her and your family.
Love, Aunt Dolores and Uncle Bill.*

Dolores and Bill Kuhn - September 01, 2013 at 01:04 PM

AG

“ To Paul ,Denise, peter, and the entire Sposato family. Your mom was a wonderful women. She was carding and giving. I know it is difficult during this time but she is not suffering anymore. She always made you feel welcomed and a very religious women. God has a special place for her and you father has prepared a place for her in heaven. Always rember the good times. She will be in you hearts forever. And remember one day we will all see her again. As my father would say " we are only passing thru this life for a better place that has been prepared for us".
She is at rest now no more suffering.....

Deepest sympathies love Anthony and Keri

Anthony and kerl garofalo - September 01, 2013 at 07:43 AM

Thank you for your wishes that. Was such a wonderful though and made me stop and realize the frenids i and mt brothers have god rest your parents to

Mike Sposato - September 02, 2013 at 11:41 AM