“ i hate thinking about this, everytime it comes to my head i just wanna cry and scream and yell and my mom says were never supposed to question god but the one question i have is why you? why did he have to take you? in a blink of a eye you were gone and it kills me everyday to know that you were such a happy person until one day you just left us. everytime i see a picture of you, or hear see you again i just wanna break down, even though i know you want us to be happy its hard knowing your not around anymore. ever since u left things got hard , i wish we could see you one last time and let us know that everything is okay and your happy upthere . it will do us that favor to let us know your not in pain . i love you uncle eddie i will never forget you ❤️❤️❤️. rest in paradise

“ Hi uncle Eddie. I miss you so much and I know we all say that but it's true. I keep telling my self I'm going to write u something but it's a lot harder then I would think. So I'm sorry I haven't written on here in so long but every time I try I get so hurt and angry. It's now 3:26 am and I can't stop thinking about you. I never will. 🕊️ why did god have to take you so early ? Who knows and they say it's a better place but how? Was it not good enough down here or something. It's so different without you. And although you can't ever come back I will never forget you. I promise. We miss you uncle Eddie. I know you're watching over us.

I Love You~ Anessa

“ Eddie, sorry we never got a chance to actually get to know one another. It's sad to have a sibling whether they're half or full blooded and not know them. I have now lost two brothers, it's an eye opener how short and delicate life is. You're passing has made Pamela and I realize regardless of us only being half siblings and not really knowing each other that we need to develop a better relationship and to make it a point to be in one another's life. I hope you're up there keeping Michael company. Please watch over all those who love you and I'm sorry we never got the chance to develop a relationship.

“ Eddie, i am sorry we never got to know eachother. I wish i could go back into time to take the opportunity to get to know my half brother. It is sad and disappointing that we will never get that chance. I found this photo of you and little Michael and its truly upsetting that i have lost two brothers. Your passing made Pamela and I realize we need to form a relationship regardless being half siblings and not really knowing eachother, we lost both our brothers now and life is way to short. Regardless if we knew eachother or not, we share the same blood. I hope your at peace and hopefully up there keeping Michael company. Please look after all those who love you, i know a lot of people miss you dearly.

“ Hey uncle Eddie it's about to be 9 months since you been gone , and I think about you every second of everyday . Sometimes when I'm in school I write notes to you shhhh don't tell my mom 😭. Every time when I think of you I get tears to my eyes and I try not to cry but it's so crazy how that a blink of a eye you were here and then gone 😭. I know you see us and are here to help us through our day or through whatever life throws at us. Mom mom can't talk about you with out tears coming to her eyes , I can't blame her I never thought you would be gone so soon 😞 . I know you safe now and nothing can ever happen now I love you uncle Eddie , until we meet again 💕. I'll start writing on this more I promise
