

Elizabeth Crawford

July 14, 2020

Elizabeth "Betty" Crawford, of Philadelphia, PA. passed away on July 14, 2020 at the age of 78.

Betsy, as family called her, was born on January 14, 1942 in Philadelphia, PA. to the late John Rahn and Bernice (nee Sheerbaum). Starting at Brown Elementary, then onto Thomas Holme when built, she graduated from Abraham Lincoln High School in 1960. Throughout her school years Betsy was a Girl Scout and later continued to assist with her daughter's troop. Betty was employed at Acme Markets Business office in Center City, then worked at Farm Journal on Roosevelt Blvd, where she met her best friends, the late Miriam Randall and Mabel Reithmeyer. She was proud to have assisted her husband in fixing up used cars and improving their loving home. Also, she enjoyed gardening, country music, observing nature, TV murder mysteries, romantic movies and especially loved spending time with her daughter.

Betty was predeceased in death by her husband James 'Bud' Crawford and her stepdaughter Karen McConville. Betty is survived by her brother John M. Rahn (Barbara); her loving daughter Bernice Kathryn Crawford; her stepsons James and Thomas Crawford. She will be missed by numerous friends whom she loved dearly.

A fundraiser page has been created to support the family at this difficult time.
