

Francis "Frankie" Patrick Byrne III

August 19, 2014

Frankie, as everyone knew him, was called home to God on August 19, 2014. Frankie is sadly missed by all who knew him. He is survived by his adoring wife, Perri, his loving, devoted parents Frank and Annie Byrne, and loving siblings Kaitlyn, Mary Elizabeth, and Peter Michael. Frankie is in God's loving embrace and will forever live in His Kingdom.

In lieu of flowers, donations to Fox Chase Cancer Research in Frankie's memory would be greatly appreciated.

“ THE FINAL INSPECTION

*The Soldier stood and faced God,
Which must always come to pass.
He hoped his shoes were shining,
Just as brightly as his brass.
'Step forward now, Soldier,
How shall I deal with you?
Have you always turned the other cheek?
To My Church have you been true?'*

*The soldier squared his shoulders and said,
'no, Lord, I guess I ain't.
Because those of us who carry guns,
Can't always be a saint.
I've had to work most Sundays,
And at times my talk was tough.
And sometimes I've been violent,
Because the world is awfully rough.
But, I never took a penny,
That wasn't mine to keep.
Though I worked a lot of overtime,
When the bills just got too steep.*

*And I never passed a cry for help,
Though at times I shook with fear.
And sometimes, God, forgive me,
I've wept unmanly tears.*

*I know I don't deserve a place,
Among the people here.
They never wanted me around,
Except to calm their fears
If you've a place for me here, Lord,
It needn't be so grand.
I never expected or had too much,*

*But if you don't, I'll understand.
There was a silence all around the throne,
Where the saints had often trod.
As the Soldier waited quietly,
For the judgment of his God.
'Step forward now, you Soldier,
You've borne your burdens well.
Walk peacefully on Heaven's streets,
You've done your time in Hell.'

I reflect on being on a boat at sea because when your in a boat you cannot control those waves that hit you

Sometimes the waves are gentle and rock you

Other times they become scattered and scary putting our minds and bodies on alert and on guard

Some waves knock me on my ass

However I know someday I will reach that beach that Frankie is on

For now

I Just have to ride these waves out and keep my life vest on which is my faith in the mercy of a God

“ Words cannot even begin to imagine how much I think of you each and every second of my time and my life. Every morning I wake up and I take the time to sit down and talk to you and right before bed. My life is different now. It will continue to be different, but it's only because my heart has changed in a different way. It may not be a better way, it may not be a worse way, but, oh my husband.. My darling darling husband. When you left me, you took all the hate, anger, and tension I was feeling inside. A huge piece of me that was bad. You gave me your true heart, your true face. You make me feel more alive every second and want to be selfless to everyone. EVERYONE.. I can't even tell you what that's like cause I am not use to it. I was never this selfless. I was always impatient and always a pain in the ass. Now you are with Jesus. Your body is with the angels, and your spirit is a humorous entity that floats wherever a little extra love needs sprinkling. I feel it when I garden, bake, and hang out with the dogs and both of our loving families. I feel again. I love you my angel. Take care of you and Erica in Heaven and all of our deceased members

Today, God I offer you everything I think or do or say, uniting it with what was done by Jesus Christ, God's own son. Today my suffering truly begins.....learning how to live without hearing his voice, especially his laugh, or seeing his face or having his great big bear hug. My suffering is offered for all of you that love us so much. You shared in our joy and bare now our pain in loving our Son Frankie, whom has gone Home and is now free.

Annie, after listening to your eulogy at Frankie's mass, I truly know in my heart that God gave you the strength to not only write your words, but to share them with everyone present. My own children commented that they did not know how you found the courage to speak. But we know, it was through Jesus Christ and our Heavenly Father. We love you and feel that deep intense pain in our hearts. Frankie, I find comfort in knowing that you are no longer suffering. You served a purpose while on earth. Job well done. Rest in peace my nephew, my Godson. Love you always and look forward to the day I see you again in Heaven. Love Aunt Judy “ Annie, Frank, Perri & family, Although I did not know your son or husband Frankie, after hearing about him at mass today I felt like I did. He sounded like a Great guy who loved his God & family with a Great Big Heart & Infectious smile. He sounds like the boy we all want our sons to grow up to be & our daughters to marry. That begins with a Great Home life so Annie & Frank kudos to you both on raising him properly. My heart aches for all of you right now in the loss of Frankie here on earth. We all know we will be together someday with our Heavenly Father but now your time here on earth has been changed. God Blessed you all with Frankie for too short of a time. Remember all the Good Times & laughs you had with Frankie, they will carry you through the rough times. Someday when you think about him you will cry tears of joy not pain. I will continue to keep you all in my daily prayers & I pray that God will Bless you all & Carry you through this life. God gained a new angel & his name is Frankie Byrne.

“ Annie, Frank and extended families,

For some moments in life there are no words to assuage the grief and heartache that life sends our way. It is our wish that there comes some small comfort to you in the knowledge that so many are in pain.

Denise and I were better parents for having you and Frank as early guides on that waypoint on the road of life. It seems like just yesterday.....

Frankie was a beautiful child, a handsome young man and undoubtedly a loving husband. The gift that Perri received in your blessing began in his earliest days of life.

You nurtured him and were there to listen to the endless stories of his wonder, helped him frolic through that magic world in everyone's childhood when danger and adventure lured him into the possibilities of the imagination. And you helped Frankie realize anything could be believed and make believe could be real.

So many thoughts and images flood my senses. Our street was bereft of young children before you two started it all. You started the village it would take to raise the children. The well being of so many young lives today began with the conscious effort that grew from 319 Franklin Ave.

*Some memories,
Birthdays, Parties on the 4th in your yard, Halloween night,
Christmas Carols
Trips to Dorney Park, the first day of school, the last day of school.
Snowstorms
Block Parties, Conklin Pool, Flick and Float, and on and on.....*

But now there is melancholy in the air, and heartache upon the wind, as we must say a final farewell.

*And now it is time to give back the soul of Francis Patrick Byrne, whom He has shared with us, he brought us joy, we loved him well,
he was not ours to keep.*

We shall choose to think of Frankie, not as gone, but as waiting, for you all, on the other side of the mourning.

Terry and Denise Smith

“ Dear Frank & Annie,

Our hearts are heavy for the grief and despair that you are experiencing. As many times as we have served families in all of these past years, it is the voice of the angels, like Frankie, that constantly remind us of the hope we should cling to.

We don't know the whys, the hows, or the timing of God's call home. But just as a newborn baby takes his/her first breath at birth, Frankie has been given his first kiss from God and a welcome Home 'celebration' that compares to nothing else in this world.

Frankie is elevated to the heights, a height that only God can see. He climbed God's Mountain and learned of God's Promises, and partakes of a chalice that binds him in a new way to the Lord. Imagine---all purity, all heavenly, all peaceful, an endless span of glory that expands to infinity!!!!!! We can try to imagine, but Frankie is there!!!!!! We think of what Heaven must be like---Frankie now knows! I have always thought that one day we all get to see this wonderful place. It is the Sacred Heart of Jesus--so huge, so much love, so embracing, and it encompasses so much of everything that is pure and good and not of this world.

We are of God. We are lent out to our parents for life on this earth. God, truly being the Father of all of us, gives and calls Home His Little Children. Praise God that Frankie was of you both, by the Sacred Gift of God the Father.

“ Dear Frankie, I am filled with gratitude I had the chance to see you smile all night long at your wedding and stand to sing by your wife's side together . I will never ever forget that moment. You were an angel already when you came into Peri's life and eternally will be, but now a high- flying angel??

“ So many great memories with Frank and Perri...one that will forever stick with me, that we laughed about every time we saw each other, was the gay waiter, Derrick, from Hikaru Sushi on South St. Derrick could not believe how much sushi we could eat and was in total awe, making us laugh so much. I know franks still laughing about Derrick up in heaven.

“ There are to many fond, happy memories to put into words. Living on Franklin Ave was the best place ever. Frankie was such a funny young man with a heart of gold. My fondest memory is if course all the kids playing out front. The block parties, and of course Frankie, Sean and Matt making their First Holy Communion together.

“ My forever lasting memory of Frank is meeting him for the first time down the shore with Perri. Within minutes of meeting him we went into the ocean and started laughing and having a blast. Frank was such a lovable person. However, he has entered a better place now. Frank you will be dearly missed by myself and the rest of the Wolf family. Love Alec Wolf.

“ Oh Frank aka (Pookie Boo shine). You are, were, and always will be my very best friend. Since you left me, you left me with an enlarged heart. I feel less angry at the world, I have absolutely nothing nasty to say to anyone, and I know that you are everywhere. I believe that you have no leg pain anymore and that Albert Einstein is your best friend in heaven along with family and Jesus. You will get your birthday present the speaker you wanted. I will share it with everyone. I will still be reading out loud to you as you wake up in the mornings and get ready for work. I miss and love you

“ Frankie, my fondest memory of you was the day you were born and being asked by your parents to be your Godmother. Then years later I was honored by you asking me to be your Confirmation Sponsor. I remember the night of rehearsal. It was so cool. When we were leaving church, you and I looked up at the sky,,,what a beautiful sight. ,Mars, Jupiter and Venus were in alignment with the moon. I remember how excited we both were. When we got back in the car, I asked you where you wanted to go to dinner, and your response was McDonalds! So Frankie. Love you always, Aunt Judy
