“ Dad - I'll always remember you as that fun loving wonderful man who had a smile that lit up his entire face and made his beautiful blue eyes sparkle. Next month you and Mom will be laid to rest. I hope you like the double marble urn which is the same color blue as your eyes shot through with silver. I'm not putting you underground - you will be in a niche with Mom and I'll be able to visit you and bring flowers. I still miss you so much - a part of me is gone and your presence is missed at family gatherings. I am glad that your pain and suffering are over - Love you forever!

What a beautiful tribute. You made me cry. I miss him so much more than I ever thought. The first everything without a loved one is difficult. Your first birthday and Easter without Pop-pop will be difficult, but we will get through it. I miss him too, and I love you, Mom.
