“ This man was a teacher , friend , father and the best grand poo! When I was a little girl this man was a second father along with Mrs. Memis being a second mother. Jamie and I lived at each others houses. At the Memis house was like being on vacation all the time. Mr.Memis some how made chores , fun. Every question you asked him , he knew not just the answer but all the facts surrounding the answer. I have spent the last week just thinking about when Jamie and I were little I've been crying laughing and wishing I could go back to those days. One day when we were little , Jamie and Timmy just got done fist fighting , so Mr. Memis yelled at them. It was probably Jamie's fault but Timmy got In trouble, Mr. Memis said, when you do bad you get bad , or something like that. Than Timmy let his snake crawl up his body , under his shirt, they snake made a bowel movement on Timmy's back. We all were cracking up.... I could sit here all day and tell stories. But this man was a great man who you had to look up to he always said what he was thinking always said the truth even if you didn't want to hear it. HE WAS FULL OF WISDOM,! The Memis Family is truly my family! I love you all and I'm so sorry that this happened !

“ There are by far way too many memories to put here on his "wall", but I always hold my one night stay, that turned into the weekend, as a kid very close. Tuesday morning will be a day to mourn, but we should end the day rejoicing in his life and time spent making ours better!! R.I.P. Poppy. Love you always!

“ There are no words to adequately tribute to you George. A great influence and inspiration for so many of us when we were kids I am forever grateful for all you did for us and you will be very missed. I am so very sorry I will not make it on Tuesday but very glad I got to see you one last time before you left us. Forever in my heart.

“ Thank You Mr. Memis for a great childhood memory of the 1976 Wagon Train. Many kids have had a great childhood because of you and teaching them about the horses and how to ride. You gave many of us childhood memories that most people only dream about !! God definitely has another angel with him. You will be greatly missed !!

“ Mr. Memis I remember as a child coming over the house which all the kids would like to hang out . You had rules but most of all fun. Riding horses CoCo was my favorite one . Geaoge and all us kids used to play silly little games in the back yard . we all did not mind cleaning the stalls, well I did not.lol You showed us respect . love and we could trust you . You're smile shines bright and will be in our hearts forever .. God has blessed you through you're children and us having the privlidge of knowing such a special person . Tell little George I said hello . Lords blessings to you .

“ These last 4 months have been very difficult for me watching you suffer just to hang on. You and I have talked about everything from the moon and back..... these things were for good for us. We laughed, we cried, we told jokes and we sat on the front or back porch and just admired nature's beauty. I'll miss these times dad but I know you'll be watching over me everyday. Till we meet again

“ Growing up, Poppy always made sure to surround himself with family and loving friends; Aren't we blessed that he did?! The Memis household was always one where we could feel welcome, he made sure of that. His strength was evident in the work he did professionally, spiritually and personally. There was no way he could ever hide his love, care, and gentle demeanor, especially with his "DOLL BA-BY". You will always be remembered in our most fond memories..... swimming pools, trampolines, TONS of animals, car rides with the dogs, parties, family dinners always starting with prayer, peacock feathers, bible study after church, the Clown House for breakfast, ice cream on Castor Ave, giant metal horses in the living room, warm fireplaces, zip lines, slip and slides, ponds, trips to the zoo-- and who could forget the Post-It Notes taped to the cell phone?? You will be truly missed, Poppy. The rest of us on Earth are at a loss without you. We are lucky to have had you as long as we did, sad that we couldn't keep you longer, and blessed to have such a great guardian angel. Heaven is lucky to have you- Don't ever let them forget it!

I lit a candle for this wonderful man, George Memis, he will be forever in our hearts. He fought a good fight but God wanted him now in Heaven. He has a beautiful family and one special son named, Troy, a young man who has a heart of gold. He is always helping others and trying to make this world a better place for children with special needs. George you no longer have to suffer, you can watch and protect your family from Heaven. May you R.I.P. I know you and my dad are going to have a blast up there. Love and prayers to the Memis family. (((((((((((((hugs)))))))))))). Ron and Donna Kesling
