

John H. Carolina

November 13, 2017

John Henry Carolina (also known as Tom or Tommy), son of Flander Carolina, Sr. and Louise Singletary Carolina, was born on January 8, 1932 in Manning, South Carolina. He departed this life on Monday, November 13, 2017 after a brief illness.

He began his education in Manning, South Carolina. At an early age he relocated to Baltimore, Maryland and continued his education. He then served in the United States Army.

John then relocated to Philadelphia, PA. He was employed by various companies throughout his life. He made numerous friends wherever he went. He was a family oriented man, enjoying visiting family and always bringing flowers from his garden or food for you to cook.

John was preceded in death by his only son Anthony Carolina, grandson Leonard Carolina, five brothers and four sisters. He leaves to cherish his precious memory one brother, Louis Carolina of Baltimore, Maryland; three sisters: Daisy Taylor (James), Pauline Alexander, Dolores Stewart (Louis), all of whom are from Baltimore, Maryland; one granddaughter Tabitha Jones (who he became very fond of), one grandson, Anthony Jones Couser; four great grandchildren: Zion Couser, Emmanuel Jones, Nadia and Noah Taylor and two special friends, Donnie and Daniel, as well as a host of other relatives and friends.
