

John Wesley Cyler

June 20, 2017

John, (aka Johnnie), was born May 14, 1951 in Chester, PA. to the late George and late Viola Cyler. Johnnie is survived by his loving sisters Vera Cyler and Lavenia Cobb (Lucy), his brother Sylvester Cyler (West), brother-in-law Roy Cobb, nephew Sylvester Cyler, Jr. (Man), nieces Michell Dunn, Ramona Cyler and Kiah Cobb, as well as his Ace Boone Coon best friend Don Jones (aka Casey). He also leaves behind many aunts, uncles, cousins, loved ones and friends.

Johnnie served as an Army soldier in the Vietnam War. He was honorably discharged when his tour was up.

He was bright and gifted in repairing cars, building homemade grills, cooking, sewing, and creating all sorts of gadgets. He made everyone laugh. He was a die hard Eagles fan.

Johnnie was always sporting around on his scooter (or should it we call it his Cadillac). He rode his scooter everywhere in Delaware & Media.

Johnnie's journey ended in order to begin a new one in Glory, Full of Love, Peace and Happiness.

No more suffering, no more pain.
