He loved his Jeep and setting off on road adventures. He frequently attended Jeep Jamborees with his son. he fancied himself a musician and loved to play his guitar. Joe loved his family something fierce. His favorite passion was spending time with his family and grandchildren, always having a funny joke or a story to tell. He lit up the room and made friends with anyone - and everyone - he encountered.

Joe was blessed with many friends, many passions - and passions for many people - and lived an exceptionally full life. He was immensely loved by those closest to him until the very end. He will be greatly missed by all.

“ Sorry to hear of Joe's passing. Grew up with Joe in West Oak Lane and played in a band with him back in the 60's. Fun to be around and always a smile on his face. Rest in peace old friend.

“ He was a wonderful step father to me, he raised me from the age of 5-20. I couldn't be more appreciative off all the love and support he gave me. I wish we would have stayed more in contact, more than just text and random calls. I love him and will miss him.

I was a grade school & highschool classmate and long time friend. All the kids in our neighborhood enjoyed hearing Joe & his band jam & play at events in the area. I was great seeing hi at our highschool reunion last year. RIP Joe.
