

Kelly Anne Crane

March 18, 2020

Kelly, age 54, passed away unexpectedly Wednesday, March 18th, 2020 at her home in Philadelphia. Kelly was born August 31st, 1965 to Margaret and William Crane. She was the middle child of 3. Her younger sibling William and older sister Deborah. Kelly attended Cardinal Dougherty High School, graduating in 1983. She worked as a handler at the bulk mail center for the United States Postal Service, displaying a one of a kind personality that would create lifetime friendships. She truly lived life to the fullest through single pleasures like chatting with friends and neighbors. She was an unfiltered, boisterous woman who brought energy and laughter to every room she entered.

Kelly is survived by Gary Hutchinson, Sr., her three children: Gary, Jr., Jamie and Paige; two half-sisters Lisa and Megan; a half-brother John; and many nieces, nephews, and grandchildren.

Family, friends and all those whose life Kelly touched are invited to celebrate her life. Due to the ongoing to the covid 19 pandemic, along with quarantines and stay at home orders, we have decided to prioritize safely. To prevent the possible spread of the coronavirus, we have made the decision to postpone the public celebration of life for our mother, Kelly. Therefore, the date for Kelly's memorialization will be announced on Foleyfuneralhome.org and all social media platforms.

We thank everyone who has been touched by Kelly's untimely death for their patience and understanding and we will be update you as soon as possible.
