“ Kim gave me her heart and soul in our business. She was a special person that my family loved. The Chapel Diner was our baby together and we spent alot of time discussing life. My stomach hurts for Devon and her family. Kim you made me a better man. God please wrap your arms around her! God bless you Kim! ”

“ I want to give Kim’s family our warmest condolences. I met her when I lived in Florida. We talked a lot thru fb and when I finally met her she was there for my whole family during a very difficult time. She was funny and loved Devon more than anything. So sad she is gone but her memory will live on.
Sincerest Condolences, The Gutierrez Family ❤️

“ Anyone who knew Kimmy, knew she was special! Funny, Loving, strong, careless, free, kind, gentle and sometimes confusing. But never a bad bone in her body. She carried a lot of pain within herself and tried never to let it show. She was beautiful beyond words, inside and out without a doubt. I Loved you like my own daughter Kimmy always will, you have my ❤️ ❤️ 💜 in the palm of your hand sweetie and yours in mine forever. You would light up a room when you walked in and it would dim when you walked out! Your beauty abound you, and will be forever be engraved in my mind and my heart 💕💕
