

Leon Daniel Hill Jr.

August 1, 2017

Leon Daniel Hill, Jr. passed peacefully and quietly on Tuesday, August 1, 2017. He is the beloved son of the late Leon and Pearl Hill. Danny is survived by his loving sister Dorethea Hill-Epps, loving cousins Dorothy M. Smith, Jason W. Smith, Kathleen Hill, nieces, nephews and cousins, as well as a host of other relatives. He also leaves behind his childhood friend Bruce Washington and many other friends.

Danny attended St. Rose of Lima Catholic Grade School and went on to West Catholic High School for Boys. In his early adult years, he was employed at a warehouse for a medical supplier of gloves.

Danny had many talents. He was artistic and loved to draw. He also excelled in fixing wheelchairs, as well as doing electrical work. He was injured many years ago and became wheelchair bound himself. His wheelchair took the place of using his legs, but you would never know it from the way he got around. He lived his life to the fullest and his greatest passion in his life was the Dallas Cowboys football team.
