

Mary Campanile

February 12, 2021

Mary Jane Elizabeth was born on November 4, 1935 in Philadelphia, PA. to the late James McGovern and late Mary (nee McCaffrey). She is preceded in death by her beloved brother, James, and her loving in-laws Joseph Campanile and Rose (nee Valerio).

Mary is survived by her adoring husband, Donald J. Campanile and her loving children: Donna Meehan (Patrick), Anthony (Diane), Peter (Eileen) and Steven; beloved grandmother of Erin Nation (Noel), Christopher Tierney (Roseann), Anthony Campanile, Jr. (Alexandra), Allison Campanile, Zachary Campanile, Kaila and Jessica Meehan; and proud great grandmother of Noel Nation, III, and Beau and Jude Tierney. She was the treasured sister of Thomas McGovern (Phyllis) and Anna Maria Tumulty (Richard); dear aunt of Elizabeth Spivey (Evan and Leah) and Laura Tumulty.

In addition to being a devoted and loving wife and mother, Mary worked at Champion Paper Corporation and Multi-Flow in Huntingdon Valley, PA.

“ To Don and Mary's children, Your wife and mom used to tell me about her youth in Olney and riding in my brother-in-law Joe Hopkins auto up and down 5th street. She loved the days of old. Now from above, she is riding all around Heaven with Our Lord at the helm and all her friends and family. God bless Mary and all of you her family. “ I am so saddened to learn of Mrs. Campanile's passing. She and Mr. Campanile were wonderful neighbors to the McGlinn Family, and particularly to my mother, Mary McGlinn, when she was living alone right next door. One could not hope for better neighbors. You have my deepest sympathy. May Mrs. Campanile rest in peace.
