“ To all Mrs. Zanis's family and friends the Pendergast;s would like to send our condolences, and know that you'll be in our thoughts and prayers through this difficult time. What can you say about Mrs. Zanis ? Allot. She was such a good neighbor and would do anything to brighten ones day, whether it be talking over the fence in the backyard or running into her on one of her many trips around the block. She will be missed. She would always talk of her family and her love for her old Carlisle Pa. times.

She was so happy when she heard my daughter bought a house in Carlisle and my Grand daughter was born in her old stomping grounds. I'm sorry I didn't get to see her more near the end of her beautiful life on this earth, but I know she is now at Peace and with her love Mr. Zanis. Sincerely Yours, John Pendergast

“ When I was a chid and later on in the 1950s, I thought Mary was such a sophisticated and exciting woman. She was an army wife, a mother who took charge of the family anywhere her husband was stationed. She had the ability to make a life out of nothing. As time went on I lost touch and moved away from the east coast but never lost the connection. Obviously she continues to be the infrastructure of this family, and she would tell you so if she could. Love wasn't something we talked about in the family, it was just there and we used it whenever we needed to. I will miss her presence and her sense of humor. I hope the family will stop by, visit a while whenever they are in the Monterey area.
