“ I have been cleaning old papers, pictures etc. trying to thin things out and i saw Michaels picture and a drawing he made me in 1977 English class. We both like Mr. Magoo. I was friends with Michael and knew Eddie both from school. I figured I would look him up as I am doing for all of the past photos and such. It is so sad to find out he is no longer with us. I am so sorry for his family and friends. He was really a nice, funny and a little wild kind of a guy who always made you laugh. I have thought of him over the years and I am sorry I was to late to speak with him. I would really like a picture or so of him through out the years, to keep in my school scrap book. Again, I am deeply sorry for you loss.

“ JOKES.....The man ALWAYS had a new joke to tell! ....and he told them well. Oh, and he really 'thought' he could dance! LOL Best of all I am thankful that he was able to pass on the artistic jean to his kids. All three of them can draw, yet me...not even a straight line!
