“ I Have my moments, most times my mind is full of times that kept me strong, I have my thoughts but most times my heart is full of things that keep me strong, I have my moments this I know is true but these days my moments have been only of you..., rest on my dear Daughter, rest on.

“ A beautiful and loving mother and a very funny person. I remember for a family reunion Nashonda wae asked what size T-shirt she needed and she told us " a smlarge", pointing first to her breast, then to her waist and lastly to her behind as she said it. Hearts and flowers, Shonda-Pooh. Love you Superstar!
