Pete was my Stepfather for many years and my mom's best friend. He had a huge heart and was wonderful person. I haven't seen Pete in a while or even talked to him except for holidays and birthday's and it breaks my heart that I will never get another chance to thank him for everything he did for me as kid growing up and for taking care of me and my sister my mom for all those years! I really hope he knew how much he meant to me! I'm so sorry for his family's loss! You will all be in thoughts and prayers forever!
