“ I just heard about Richard’s passing at mass at St. Cecilia’s. Richard was our “paper man” Such a hard worker and devoted to his children and grandchildren! Saw him at Gearo’s many times with his beautiful wife and children. Especially remember Donna and the St. William track days. I was so saddened by this!! I’ll keep him in my prayers and all of you!!!

“ Dad, there are no words to describe the pain I’m feeling ! Losing you is like losing myself ! I have a huge hole in my heart that will never be filled ! You were such an amazing father, husband and pop pop!!!! Your personality was so contagious no matter where you went ! You always had a way of making people laugh and have fun no matter where you were ! Even people who only spent a short amount of time around you managed to say “ I love your dad or how awesome you were “ ! You have touched so many people in so many ways !!!! We have had so many fun memories together from our Robbins Ave block parties, to you coaching our sports games, to our school plays and events, our Phillies and Eagles game tailgates, to you walking me down the aisle and to meeting all your grandkids!!!! I could go on and on but I won’t because it just makes me sad ! From the time I was a day old until now (40 years old) you were always there for me or checking on me to make sure I was ok ! Whether I was sick , needed to cry or laugh, borrow money or just needed advice you were always there! Ryan was super lucky to have you as his Pop Pop and I was super lucky to have you as my dad and that you will be able to meet Ryan !! I still check my phone to see if i have a missed call Or a text from you but sadly I don’t and never will ☐ I miss you so much dad and nothing will ever be the same ! I just feel so empty ! You were the true definition of A Father and a best friend !!!! I love you so much Dad and I hope you are playing golf and dancing away in heaven to Oldies!!!! Thank you for being you ! Until we meet again ! Denise (Hooch) 💔💔💔💔💔💔

“ I've known Rich for about 40 years and remember the first time we met at a Robbins Ave block party. Rich was always a competitive guy and was that night as well playing horseshoes. We worked together, bowled together, went to dinner together and attended each other's family weddings. Sometimes we would just pop in for an impromptu visit with each other or make a quick phone call to check in on each other. Rich felt like a part of my family. He was a caring person always wanting to know how everyone was doing. He was a loving husband and a devoted father and was always talking about his children and grandchildren, whom he loved so much. Rich was the life of the party and no super bowl party will be the same without him. Sadly, due to the last few Covid years, we didn't get to see one another as much, but I am glad I got to talk to him and wish him a happy birthday before we lost him. Rich was a true friend and I hope he was dancing to Double Dutch Bus all the way to heaven. I will miss you Pal. Ed

My Deepest Condolences to you All. Rich was a Great Guy & a good friend to my husband Billy. They worked at Nabisco together for many years, and shared many good times & memories . I feel your pain.. we lost Billy in 2020. The heartbreak does not go away but it does get easier to bear. Remember all of the good times & know he will Always be there for you & show you little signs that you will know are from him. I pray for you all. May he Rest In Peace. 🙏

“ Very sorry to hear this news. I can't imagine the pain and sense of loss that Adele, Donna and the rest of the family are feeling now.

Few people have the charisma, charm and personality that Rich had. I was quite fond of him and always enjoyed his company. Like so many others I'm sure, I'm longing to share another moment and experience with him. It saddens me to know that won't occur but I do believe that Rich, if possible, would have written a similar script of how he passed. Somehow for a moment, that makes me feel just a little better.

He was a treasure and someone who is irreplaceable. I hope Rich's friends and family can find some peace.

*God bless!!

GA

I am so sorry to hear of Rich's passing. While I no longer live in the Northeast area I remember the jolly, full of spirit and joy brother he was to best childhood friend, Pam.

Rich will be greatly missed and loved. Please know that Rich and your whole family are in my prayers.

May God bless you all,

Gail Whippen
