

Ronald Brunson

November 13, 2017

Ronald was born July 14, 1950 to the late Edward and Nettie Brunson in Phila. PA. He attended Olney High School and then joined the Army in 1967. He received an honorable medical discharge. Ronald later met and married Renetta and through that union had a daughter which they named Tevina Marie Brunson. He later married Elizabeth Brunson who preceeded him in death.

Ronald enjoyed watching movies, documentaries, listening to a variety of music. He especially loved gardening and decorating his home for the holidays. Christmas was his all time favorite holiday.

Ronald accepted Christ as an adult and at one time attended Zion Baptist Church. Due to his illness over the years he became more and more secluded, staying to himself. He always knew, however, that if he needed help, his family would be there for him. As many times that he pushed his medical alert button, this last time he was unable to.

Ronald finally has peace, free from the mental and physical illness that he lived with all of his adult life.

Ronald was preceeded in death by his father Edward Brunson, his mother Nettie Foster Brunson Bell and his sister Joyce Garrison.

He leaves to cherish his memory his daughter Tevina Marie Brunson, grandsons Tevaughn and Temir, granddaughter Amani, great grandson Jaleb, brother Reginald Brunson, sisters Sonya Brunson and Brenda Horton, and a host of nieces and nephews to mourn his death.
