“ I remember Tara climbing up the bleachers with hot dog and soda in hand at the Pennridge football games. She must have thought we were at a picnic. Ron and Tara were like two peas in a pod. She loved her family unconditionally. Her leaving us is unexpected, untimely and leaves a lot of emptiness around us. Tara you will be missed forever!

“ *Tara...
Our lives are forever changed without your free spirit, that infectious smile and glowing personality. Please watch over your family and friends as they move through some very difficult days ahead.
We love and miss you
