

Thomas M. Loomis

February 23, 2019

Thomas was born July 30, 1958 in Westtown, PA. to Mary (nee Mowery) and Thomas L. Loomis. He is survived by Suzanne O'Connell, his mother Mary, and brother David Loomis.

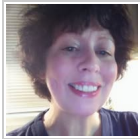

Thomas is also survived by his good, long time friend, Gary Grisafi. Thomas was the keyboard player in Gary's band, the Blu Dogz.

“ Tommy was the sweetest man I ever knew. I will love him forever.

“ Tom was so much more than a member of The Blu Dogz. He was a musician known far and wide. He was mentioned in Musicians Magazine, very young as a jazz musician, and noted as talented, and a giving musician. He wrote charts for nationally known acts, and I have had the pleasure to hear those recordings. He'd be embarrassed that I speak up about this. But he is SO MUCH MORE than that one band.

“ Tom is my best friend, and the love of my life. He was funny, kind, compassionate. Loyal to a fault. So smart. He made me a better person. I look forward to our next life, together.

“ I will miss you Tom. Your time came way too soon. In the few years we knew each other we shared a lot of experiences. First you took my son on as a student and taught him to play his first song. Then we worked together installing stairlifts. You fixed the roof on my barn and jammed with me at our summer party. There were so many things that you could do. A true renaissance man. Rest well my friend

“ My condolences to Suzanne, Mary, David and Tom's buddy Gary.

I had only known Tom for about two years. I decided to take piano lessons at age 53 and found Tom. He was very sharp and talented. I enjoyed the time we spent together talking about different types of music. He introduced me to the Four Freshman, and I tried unsuccessfully, to get him to listen to sound tracks from LaLa Land and The Greatest Showman. When he got on a roll talking about chord structures and shapes on the keyboard, it was all I could do to keep up. He was generous with his time, encouraging and passed along positive vibes, even though I often felt like I didn't have any natural talent.

I will miss learning from Tom and I regret not having seen him play in his bands, Blu Dogz and Bounce, something I had intended to do.

Tomás, rest in peace my friend. You will be missed.

Joe C.
