“ Dear Tuong Van,
I miss your sweet, loving, honest ways. How you really enjoyed having your nails painted, pretty jewelry, and being with everyone. You are a gentle kind presence who inspired love from those around you.
With love, sorrow and gratitude,
Your cousin Duyen Duong

“ Tuong Van, we are very glad that we were able to share the last couple days in your life .
Even though it is heartbreaking to see you left us so suddenly but we are happy that you are not suffering any more and you rest in peace in God's hand now.
We love you and we miss you dearly Tuong Van, until we meet again.

“ I fortunately had a few precious times with my sister Tuong Van in my last few trips to Philadelphia over the last few months. She was able to talk me, answered my silly questions, I made her laugh.

Thank God for making her end of life not too strenuous. May Tuong Van rest in peace with Mom & Dad.

Sister, you're forever in our heart, we love you and miss you dearly.
